Signor mio, nel far dipingere in carte non solo impre

I se,

se, ma anchora habiti di diuerse nationi, mi fece li giorni passati entrare in pensiero di raccogliere un libro, giudicando per questa uia, grandimente compiacere à cotesta nobilissima natione, & perche fù sempre costume di coloro, che le loro compositioni mandano in luce di dedicarle ad huomini, che ne possano far giudicio, ò uero à quelli che con lo splendore del nome loro le facciano hauer maggior credito & reputatione, ho uoluto la medesima usanza offeruare anchor io in questa mia fatica (qual ella sia) di mettere insieme questi disegni, o ritratti, & non trouando à cui meglio, meglio la possa o debba raccomandare, & dedicarla, che a V. S. Illustrissima ho uoluto publicarla per mezzo delle stampe, sotto l'honoratissimo nome uostro, mosso dalla fama del ualore, & molta uirtù di Vostra Signoria Illustrissima sperando che cio debba accrescerle ornamento, & desiderando insieme con questo dono, anchorche debile, mostrare la mia deuotione uerso lei, alla quale desidero principalmente ch'ella riguardi piu che all'opera che presento; perche conosco, che non è degna dell'altezza del suo bellissimo animo, se non quanto le piacerà degnarla con la tua sua benignità, in gratia della quale humilmenre raccomandando-mi, bacio la mano di V. S. Illustrisme in primis antiquissimæ tuæ familiæ dignitas & am-plius, plitudo, Virtutum, ac integritatis Vitæ splendore & licet hæc omnia sint conspicua & in confesso omnibus, accedunt tamen alia maioris momenti quasi, quæ conceptam de te opinionem penitus confirmant. Nam cum sciam Inclytam uestram Nationem rebus suis benè & constituendis & ge-rendis te unicū sibi Consiliariū ac fidelem patroposse præferri: Quamvis non desint quàmpluri-Nationis, fœcundissima & politissima ingenia.

Alia & magis forsitan euidentior ratio, qua impulsus, hunc de uario, uariarum gentium, habitu & ornatu libellum tibi dicarem hæc est: Reperiuntur uaria hominum ingenia, quod uti placet, multis displicere solet. Deinde & hoc accedit, qđ his peruersis hominum moribus, adeo quorun-

ALL' ILLVSTRISSIMO

S I G N O R E,

Il Signor Giorgio Hartman Barone di Teuffenpach,

Sig. in Mairhofen &c.

padron mio col.^{mo}

HAuendo veduto per esperienza, che la fatica ch'io presi gli anni addietro di raccorre insieme' gli habiti di varie nationi, non e riuleita ingrata a coloro che si diletmano di tal genere di nobile curiolita, mi sono ogni di piu inanimato ad inuestigar continuamente, & procurare di non tralasciar cosa degna, ch'io non des si loro rappresentata con quella diligenza, che per me si potesse, maggiore. Onde trovandomi in processo di tempo hauer mel-

Io insieme questo nuouo uolume, & parendomi peruenuto a sufficiente grandezza, mi e parso di non differir piu a mandarlo in luce; con speranza, che debba essere gradito, & riceuuto tanto piu uolentieri, poiche porta non solo uarieta d'habiti non contenuti nell'altre parti prima stampate si da me, come da altri, che hanno cercato d'imitar in qualunque modo la mia industria; ma notitia ancora d'usanze, & diletteuole a spiriti gentili, & non inutile forse a tirar in imitatione & in uso, che finalmente e principal frutto della peregrinatione. Ma per acquistargli tuttaua gratia maggiore, ho uoluto maderlo fuori segnato con l'honoratissimo nome di V.S. ILLVSTRISSIMA, non solo persuaso dalla nobiltà della sua famiglia chiarissima & per gloria d'armi, & per ogn'altra uirtù conueniente a Signori di gran fortuna; ma indutto ancora dal valor proprio di lei stessa. La quale come che sia riguardeuole in questo nobilissi-mo studio per le dette cagioni, essendo massime fresca la memoria dell'Illustrissimo Signor suo Padre Presidente del Consiglio di guerra del Serenissimo Arciduca Carlo, & ribombando tuttaua da per tutto la fama della singular uirtù del Signor Christophoro Baron de Teuffenpach suo Cugino, General al presente nell'Vngheria superiore, il quale in un'anno solo ha condotto a glorioso fine tante segnalate vittorie & el pugnationi contra infedeli: le doti nondimeno di lei proprie sono tali, di gentilezza, di magnanimità, di splendore, di prudenza superiore all'età sua, che assai chiaro testimonio danno, V.S. Illustrissima esser amata da Dio, & degna insieme della riueranza di chiunque la conosce. Per la qual cosa si come non dubito, che non debba esser approuato & lodato il mio consiglio di dedicarle il presente libro, cosi spero, che V.S. Illustrissima sia secondo l'humanità sua per riceuerlo benignamente, come la pre-go, risguardando nō tanto alla qualità del dono inferior assai al merito di lei, quanto alla deuotione dell'animo, con che le uien offerto. & humilmente le bacio la mano con augu-rarle da Dio prosperita.
